The New Era.

Newmarket, Friday April 16, 1858.

General Summary.

The North-York Electoral Ploughing Match will be held this year on the Farm of Mr. John Dawson, near Newmarket, on the 20th instant. For particulars see advertisement in another column.

The Ladies' Bazaar, in connection with the Congregational Church of this place, will be held in the wareroom of Mr. J. Millard, on Tuesday next, the 20th inst. The Newmarket Brass Band will be in attendance, in the evening.

Mr. McDougall's return for the Killing of Oxford, vacated by Mr. Brown electing for Toronto, is considered beyond doubt; and from our personal knowledge of the man we believe he will make an excellent member and be of good service to the opposition.

From the office of Mr. John Lovell, publisher of the "Canada Directory," we have received a neat pamphlet—being a Lecture delivered by Alexander Morris, A. M., before the Mercantile Library Association of Montreal, on the subject of British North America.

We would readily comply with the request of our correspondent in another column, and send a Reporter to the meetings of our "Town Fathers," during our incapacity to attend personally—but really we can't afford it. We would feel obliged if "Nick" could attend and furnish us some "pen and ink sketches."

Following up the example set by other towns and cities, the religious community, embracing members of all evangelical churches, in this place, hold a Union Prayer Meeting every day during the week, at noon, in the Temperance Hall. Great revivals have also taken place in the Wesleyan and Christian Churches, &c. many have made profession of religion.

The First Attempt.

Kind reader, for the first time in nearly four months we make the attempt to grind out something in the shape of an editorial; and really the task is a difficult one. From the nature of the affliction under which we have been suffering, it was deemed necessary that we should be denied the privilege of reading the newspapers of the day,—hence a good deal of the time of our confinement seems a perfect blank, and most of our reader's will, perhaps, be better posted in regard to the news of the day than we are. However, our typists say they must have something, and we will therefore take a fling at the

LEGISLATURE.

Nearly two months have elapsed since His Excellency called together the wisdom of united Canada to legislate for the good of the country in general, and to adopt such measures as might be deemed expedient and necessary for the welfare of the people. But last week they done! Scarcely a single thing is now in a third reading, and yet, animation in the country above $1,000 a day.

A clergyman, we are glad, sired his clerk to give the member for this no service in the cause of his measure for, to officiate with another, a Judicial clerk, as soon as the servitors for Judicial ed out. "I am desirous still mention a circumstance: another general election previous the last one, it will be remembered how ignorant the people felt at the manner in which constituency in Lower Canada recorded their votes for a certain candidate in the Government interest, that there were inhabitants, including men, women, and children.) All, as very little attention was paid to that, at the last election several constituents followed the example. The Opposition however, being pretty strong, the Ministry had to have considerable trouble to screen its agents from suffering the penalty of the misdeeds. The Ministry have an Upper-Canada majority against them of seven members—still they legislative for us, and we are compelled to bow to Lower Canada. Sooner or later have a dissolution of the Union, say we, tolerate this iniquity.

(NORTH OXFORD.)

This riding now has the eyes of Upper Canada upon it. At the last election it returned Mr. Brown; but as that gentleman was returned for Toronto also, and having elected to sit for the latter constituency, a vacancy occurred and a new election ordered for North Oxford. Two candidates are in the field—one a Ministerialist and the other avowedly a friend to the Opposition—Iola, J. C. Morrison being the one, and Wm. McDougall, the other—the former gentleman was a member of McDougall's Cabinet, until South Ontario gave him "the mittens." By the Parliamentary Reports, we perceive that Mr. Brown sat upon the floor of the House, that Mr. McDougall would be returned with great difficulty. Should this statement prove correct, the Ministry cannot but perceive how slender must be their hold upon the affection of the people of Upper Canada.

DOUBLE MAJORITY.

The question of governing by a double majority—that is, that the ministry of the day should receive the confidence and retain the support of a majority of the members of both sections of the Province, or a majority of both the members of the House of Commons and the Senate—was now engrossing the attention of Parliament. How it will be decided remains to be seen. If a "rider" can be attached to the effect, that the principle is a correct one until representation by Population is conceded, the Ministry will be beaten, and we will then have a change of the wire-pullers—a new shuffle of the political cards.

Correspondence.

We wish to be distinctly understood that we are not responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

Our Municipal Papers.

To the Editor of the New Era.

SIR.—It is a source of deep regret to the inhabitants of Newmarket, that your protracted illness prevents you being amongst us, and more particularly, as a Journalist at the meetings of the Council Board of our newly incorporated village, is much like; for all their wisdom is lost to future generations; all their debates are lost, unrecorded, and their light to all intents and purposes, is hid under a Bushel.

Could you not obviate this a little by giving us some insight into their proceedings? so that at least we may know by what laws we are governed. Sometimes since there was a petition presented numerously signed, against licensing saloons, which was taken up at once, and acted upon, and at the last sitting of the Council another petition was presented, (as numerously signed and quite as influential) praying the Council to take such steps, as providing the necessary sparrows, as would be of some service, in case of fire; but that was referred to Committee to report on, when they please, how they please, and pass what they please, as the Committee will be almost certain to vote for their own report.

Now one would have thought that the Council would have acted as promptly with this petition, as the other, after the warning they had given in three fires occurring in our midst so recently; and had not been for the exertions of the inhabitants of Newmarket would have been insightfully massed, and more probably some poor child or human being, sacrificed in the flames to the tardiness and inaction of the Council.

At Brooklyn on the 3rd of April we had another good time. The meeting was addressed by Postmaster Darlington, Editor of the Ontario Times, George Potter, Esq., and myself. The Templars at Brooklyn recently received between 25 and 30 new members. I officiated for the Wesleyan Church on Easter Sunday Morning. Although no "holy hands" have ever been placed on my head, the Wesleyans let me preach Jesus and the Resurrection to my fellow sinners. Who can call the Wesleyans bigoted or uncharitable after this? In the afternoon I attended the Presbyterian Church and heard an excellent sermon by Rev. Wm. King, an able and very agreeable gentleman and Christian. Every real Christian will always be gentle in his manners. He preached on the importance of correct training for children, and very correctly dwelt on the importance of Parents setting good examples. How many drunkards have been made by parental example in the use of liquor!

At Prince Albert a smart place with a loyal name, we had a great crowd on the 5th instant, Abner Hood, Esq., F. Davis, Esq. of Brock, Rev. Mr. Savage and myself spoke to the people. Rev. Mr. Savage moved me a vote of thanks, and the people gave me something that will go farther in paying my expenses than would go the most cordial vote of thanks that I receive, and I get plenty of them. The Sons and Temples are strong at Prince Albert. The Observer is friendly to the cause. Temperance men should see to it as well as the Canada Temperance Advocate of Montreal; the newspapers friendly to the cause are well sustained. The more folks are never slow at shelling out the shillings to keep up their pel organs!

At Bowmantown with Rev. John Smith in the Chair we had a small meeting on the 6th. I present the special religious services going on in the town Churches kept away many of my friends of whom I have many in all the Churches in Bowmantown, Rev. Mr. Graves sent me a letter from brother Rev. W. Barratt of Primitive Methodist Church apologizing for not being able to attend as he had to go to Conference. Failed to attend Rev. Mr. Barratt's Meeting in Toronto, the Spring and Summer before I was called out of darkness into light, love and liberty, by a merciful God and Saviour. Rev. Mr. Barratt is an earnest honest man, and loves Jesus and all who are following on to know the Lord, whom to know is life eternal, rev. St. John 6th and Romans 5th and 6th chapters. The Editors of the Statesman and Star at Bowmantown are real friends to me and to the cause of Truth. The Sons made every arrangement for me at Bowmantown and as on a former occasion treated me with great respect and liberality.

In this place, Newcastle, last evening in the Orange Lodge Hall, we had a fine audience, Brother Edward Finch in the Chair. Meeting opened with prayer by Rev. W. Philp. The Templars here are 50 strong and are going ahead. I have appointments for each evening up to the 29th when, if spared, I will be in Cornwall, after which I expect to go into Glenary and meet my dear health Scotland friends who made me welcome there last Spring.

In this place, Newcastle, last evening in the Orange Lodge Hall, we had a fine audience, Brother Edward Finch in the Chair. Meeting opened with prayer by Rev. W. Philp. The Templars here are 50 strong and are going ahead. I have appointments for each evening up to the 29th when, if spared, I will be in Cornwall, after which I expect to go into Glenary and meet my dear health Scotland friends who made me welcome there last Spring.

At Bowmantown with Rev. John Smith in the Chair we had a small meeting on the 6th.

I present the special religious services going on in the town Churches kept away many of my friends of whom I have many in all the Churches in Bowmantown, Rev. Mr. Graves sent me a letter from brother Rev. W. Barratt of Primitive Methodist Church apologizing for not being able to attend as he had to go to Conference. Failed to attend Rev. Mr. Barratt's Meeting in Toronto, the Spring and Summer before I was called out of darkness into light, love and liberty, by a merciful God and Saviour. Rev. Mr. Barratt is an earnest honest man, and loves Jesus and all who are following on to know the Lord, whom to know is life eternal, rev. St. John 6th and Romans 5th and 6th chapters. The Editors of the Statesman and Star at Bowmantown are real friends to me and to the cause of Truth. The Sons made every arrangement for me at Bowmantown and as on a former occasion treated me with great respect and liberality.

A. J. WHITFORD, & Co.,
50 Leonard Street, New York.

MORSE, the inventor of MORSE'S ROOT PILLS, has spent the greater part of his life in travelling, having visited Europe,

Asia, and Africa, as well as North America;

has spent three years among the Indians of our Western country—it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered.

Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all disease arises from IMPURITY OF

THE BLOOD—that our strength, health and life depend upon this vital fluid.

When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in perfect harmony with the different functions of the body, the blood loses its action, becomes thick, corrupted and di-eased; thus causing all pains, sickness and diseases of every name; our strength is exhausted, our health we are deprived of, and if nature is not assisted in throwing off the sickness, the blood will become choked and cease to set, and thus our light of life will forever be blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how pleasant is it that we have it in our power to put a medicine in your reach, namely, Morse's Indian Root

Pills, manufactured from plants and roots which grow around the mountainous cities in Nature's garden, for the health and recovery of diseased

men. One of the most famous which those Pills are made is a Sudorific, which opens the pores of the skin, and assists Nature in throwing out the finer parts of the corruption within.

The second is an Expectorant, and opens and un-clodes the passage to the lungs, and thus, a soothing massage, performs its duty by the throwing off phlegm, and other humor from the lungs

by copious spitting. The third is a Diuretic, which gives ease and double strength to the kidneys; thus encouraged, they draw large amounts of impurity from the blood, which is then thrown out bountifully by the urinary or water passages, and which could not have been discharged in any other way. The fourth is a Cathartic, and accompanies the other properties of the Pills while engaged in purifying

the blood; the coarser particles of impurity which cannot pass by the finer outlets, are then taken up and conveyed off in greater quantities effectually eradicated.

PERSONS IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD, may be successfully treated by forwarding a correct

detail of their case, with a remittance for Medicines, which will be returned with the utmost dispatch, and secure from observation.

Letters for advice must contain a fee of $1.

Patients wishing for Medicines will be charged according to the nature of their complaint.

Amusement

Next to my friends I love my enemies, for from them I first heard my faults.

All is sugar to the rain—such the praise of fools.

A Pop is like a cinnamon tree—the bark is worth more than the body.

Every man who commits a trespass is the prisoner of justice as soon as he has done it.

We have seen woman not only too weak to bear load, but even too weak to bear contradiction.

Why is a person approaching a candle like a man getting off his horse? Because he is going to a light.

When Jekyll, the witty lawyer, was asked what was the difference between an attorney and a solicitor, he replied: "About the same that exists between an alligator and a crocodile."

Bird FANCER.—Oh, I'm so glad you like birds; what kind do you most admire? I said a young wife to her husband. "Well, I think a good turkey, with plenty of dressing, is about as good as any."

An exquisite in Warley Place attempted suicide last night, because his waterwoman ironed the string of his "dicker" the wrong way. Susceptible youth! When we last heard from him his parents had placed his feet in a warm bath, made of rosewater.

Please sir, said an Irishman to a trapper, would you be so obliging as to take my great goat here to Boston with you?

Yes, said the man in the wagon, but how will you get it again?

Och, that's mighty nisy, said Pat, for where I'll remeal it!

A correspondent of the Boston Journal sent to that paper the following epitaph, which he says he found on a tombstone in Oxford, N. H.:—

To all my friends I bid adieu,
A more sudden death you never knew;
As I was leading the old mare to drink,
She kicked and killed me quicker a wink.

A man who cheats in short measure, is a measures rogue. If he gives about measure in wheat, then he is a rogue in grain. If he gives a bad title to land, then he is a rogue in deed. And if he cheats whenever he can, he is, indeed, in spirit, in grain, a measures rogue.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.—Oh, Johnny! said one little boy to another, "let us play fighting! and you stand on the table; that's the fort; and I'll be the enemy, and undermine the fort, and blow it up—take the table by the legs, you know, and tip you over." Won't it be fun? Johnny was dubious, and suggested that Charley stand upon the table.

Sonny, where is your father?
Father's dead, sir.
Have you any mother?

Yess I had one, but she's got married to Joe Dankin, and don't be my mother any more, 'cause she says she's got enough to do to tend to his own young ones!
Smart boy here's a penny for you.

That's ye, sir; it's the way I got my living!

How!
Why, by tellin' big yarns to green uns like you.

The officer of the deck on board a man-of-war, asked the man at the wheel, "how does she head?" It was blowing a gale of wind.

"Southast," replied Pat, touching his hat but forgetting to add "to," to his answer.

"You'd better put a few more S's to your answer when you speak to me," said the buffy lieutenant.

"Aye, aye, Sir-r-r, returned the witty Irishman.

A day or two after, the Officer called out again:

"How does she head now?"

"Southast and be south, half south and a little southerly, sir-re your honor, Sir, screamed Pat.

A KENTUCKY ANECDOTE.—A Southern gentleman owned a slave, a very intelligent fellow, who was an universalist. On one occasion he illustrated the intellectual character of his religion, in the following manner. A certain slave had obtained a license of the Baptists to preach. He was holding forth in the presence of many colored brethren at one time, when he undertook to describe the process of Adam's creation. Said he:

"When God made Adam, he stooped down, scraped up a little dirt, yet it a little in the hands, squeezed it in the right shape, and then laid him up against de fence to dry."

"Top dere," said our Universalist darkey, "you say dat are the fustest man ever made?"

"Sarin," said the preacher.

"Den," said the other, "jees tell a fellow what dat fence come from!"

"Iwah!" said the preacher, "two more questions like dat, nad apile all de follogy in de world!"

FANTASTICALLY EXCITING SCENE.—The following extract from a most deservedly popular work called "The Rover; or the Hoot-black's Wife's Sister's Niece," is terribly thrilling. We will not insure any young lady against fainting right away at the close of this awfully terrific extract:

A dark frown overspread the handsome and courtly features of Fernando, the Rover.

"Why, why?" he asked, brandishing his silver hand broad sword furiously around "will thou not believe me, my beautiful Maris de Argyle?" By this good word do I swear I love thee—truly, wildly, passionately love thee. Then why stand so coldly aloof from this bosom which is bursting for thee?"

"The beautiful girl assayed to speak, but could not.

"Ha!" exclaimed Fernando, the Rover, and a sardonic smile lit up his face, "thou lovest another!"

"No!" she trembledly, yet with dignity, replied.

"Then why not come to this bosom?" wildly repeated the Rover.

"Because, sir," she repeated drawing herself to her full height, "I'm afraid yer gonna."

THE LATEST FASHION.—A novelty in female costume, more startling and revolutionary than the red petticoat, has made its appearance in the fast city of New York. We refer to scarlet trowsers, cut as far as a casual observer could judge, altogether a la Turque, buttoned closely around the ankle, and producing a very brilliant and impressive effect. Whether it is an imported fashion, intended like crocodile by an import, or like the Bal-moral petticoat by a queen, or whether like the Bloomer it is a creation of native genius, in our ignorance on such subjects we are totally unable to say. Many of the Yankees appear to be extremely ridiculous!
